Beatles Tribute Band STUDIO TWO Rocks Bellingham Portion of Concert Series

Well-versed in the early repertoire of the Beatles' rock-and-roll period, Studio Two came down from Milford, N.H. to headline the Concerts on the Grass show July 8. The band plays over 70 such shows a year. A reporter from the prominent Beatles fanzine Octopus' Garden interviewed the lads afterward.

The Bellingham Town Common hosts two more concerts this July, with Morse Code, a classic rock band, on the 22nd, and the Riverboat Stompers on the 29th.

Recent Activity at the ABMI-TV Studio

Al Francis (as Paul) croons a Beatles tune at the Studio Two show July 8 on the Bellingham Common. At left is Rob Murray (George) and Stephen Murray (John) on the right.

Below, Brian Perrico of Brian's Country Greenery joined Linda Trudeau for a taping of Something Special on May 20. Far below, host Don Keller chats with Chuck Scharnagle, a candidate for Mendon Selectman, for the May 7 In the Spotlight.

Spring cleaning included some mowing and mulching in front of the studio and the planting of a pear tree (right) where the old Comcast sign used to stand.

Stephen Murray of Studio Two exhorts the crowd to twist and shout.

Sutherland Bids Adieu To ABMI Board & Staff

Longtime ABMI Board Member Brian Sutherland of Bellingham submitted a letter of resignation to the board recently, citing the lack of time to attend meetings due to the demands of his job.

“Brian has served on the Board since the year 2000,” said Publicity Director Steve Saraceno. “His contributions over the years have been manifold, and he will certainly be missed.”
