“Celebrity Bowling” Raises Scholarship Money

Episode Ten of Pete Royce's Bowling for Scholars, shot Oct. 17 at Sparetime Recreation in Whitinsville, featured a special edition called “Celebrity Bowling.”

The three-string match pitted Father David Mullen of St. Brendan's Parish in Bellingham against Father Nick DeSimone of St. Mary's in Uxbridge.

Fr. DeSimone won with a total of 224 pins to 202, to garner scholarship funds for Sparhawk Academy.

Producer Pete Royce wishes to thank the sponsors for the show, including Blackhawk Pizza, Dean Bank, Worcester Red Sox, Executive Auto, Runway Auto Body, Caryville Garage, Neighborhood Kitchen, P.J.'s Bar & Grille, and ABMI-TV.

The finished production will be cablecast the weekend of Oct. 27-29 at Noon and 9pm nightly on the ABMI-TV Public Channel (Comcast Ch. 8, Verizon Ch. 47.)

Board Selects Three Winners for $1,000 ABMI-TV Scholarship

The ABMI Board of Directors recently selected three local graduates as recipients of $1,000 ABMI-TV Scholarship:

Lauren Plumb of Mendon graduated from Nipmuc Regional High School in June and is now attending Syracuse University.

Bayleigh Murphy graduated from Bellingham High School in June. She is currently attending the University of Connecticut.

Cassandra Senna graduated from Bellingham High School in June. She is currently attending the Massachusetts College of Art and Design.

The criteria for judging scholarship applicants include experience volunteering at ABMI, activities that display interest in Mass Communications, general grades and school activities, and recommendations from teachers, staff, and others.

“We’re always glad to help local students with the scholarships,” said Station Manager Patrick Fleming. Applicants must reside in either Bellingham or Mendon and must be enrolled in college for the Fall 2023 semester.

Although the communications field of study is preferred, all applicants are considered.

Winners must complete their first fall semester at college in order to collect the award money.

Applications for the 2024 ABMI-TV Scholarship are available through the Guidance Dept. of area high schools or in person at the ABMI studio at 10 William Way in Bellingham.
