Talent Call flips for Flippo

Popular TV clown "Flippo" juggles three sharp knives during taping of Talent Call U.S.A. on Aug. 6

Ed Gidney's Talent Call U.S.A. continues to expand its horizons, bringing in performers from all walks of show business. Two years ago Gidney debuted with a line-up composed almost exclusively of karaoke singers. Since then instrumentalists, comedians, and magicians have gained a place in the limelight. "Flippo" the Clown has also appeared on ABC-TV, Nickleodeon, and the Cartoon Network.

Grupposo suggests guidance counselors review scholarship applications next year

ABMI Board Vice-President Kevin Grupposo suggested at the July board meeting that high school guidance counselors first review all applications for the ABMI $1000 Scholarship next year.

Grupposo said that a proviso could be included on the blank applications stating that the completed application must be read by the guidance counselor before sending it along to ABMI.

The suggestion was prompted by a discussion about the disappointing quality of this year's applications. Publicity Director Steve Saraceno agreed that such a stipulation could help improve the standard for future submissions.

In other business, Board Secretary Earl Pearlman asked why the revenue from Verizon keeps going up. Station Manager Patrick Fleming said it may be due to customers switching from Comcast to Verizon, or the Verizon rates themselves going up. Board President Jereme Cooper noted that more Verizon lines have been installed near Talbot Farm.

In new business, Fleming showed the Board the rough sketch for the "wrap" that will be applied to the van by Key Signs of Millis. Pearlman asked what will be on top of the van. Fleming said, "Nothing." The platform from the old van will not be put on top of the new van, because the new riser for the camera tripod goes as high as eight feet.

Saraceno reported a tied vote for the scholarship. Board Member John Lee had been unavailable for a vote for over a month. Cooper decided to withdraw his (Cooper's) previous abstention and to cast a vote to break the tie. The winner was determined to be Franklin Reese of Bellingham.

2012 CONCERTS ON THE GRASS in Mendon

Two fun bands helped make the Mendon portion of Concerts on the Grass series a success. The Infrac-tions (right and below) brought rock and the Brass Connection (lower two pics) blew their own horns.

Brian Stratton and his Infrac-tions have headlined at ABMI concerts in both Bellingham and Mendon.

"It's like a vacation spot," commented one band member after the Infrac-tions show on Aug. 8. The Mendon Town Beach has now hosted ABMI shows for over a decade. Beach Director Dan Byer called the concerts, "The highlight of the season."

King's Row on Something Special

Wayne Lima of the popular singing group King's Row recently appeared on Something Special, the ABMI talk show hosted by Linda Trudeau.

The show was taped Aug. 16 and appeared Friday, Saturday, and Sunday, Aug. 17-19 on the ABMI Public channel.

Something Special airs every weekend at 11 a.m. and 5 p.m.
